DHYANA CENTRE REGISTRATION

For those wishing to involve themselves in Centre activities other than the Sunday introductory courses or the OM Healing sessions on Fridays, registration is required and there are two distinct levels: Associate and Member. Associate status is open to all attendees and is effectively a trial membership; it is free and involves joining the main email circulation list as well as giving access to the DC's lending library and certain restricted-entry sessions. Full Member status is open to all those who have been through at least Part 1 of the Centre's foundation course and it includes fellowship of the Theosophical Society for which a fee of £20 per calendar year is payable.

If you would like to register with the Centre as an Associate, please complete the section below and hand it to Alan Perry, the Centre Director. Once registered, there is no need to renew: those who continue to attend the Centre will in due course be invited to upgrade to full Membership; those who stop attending are automatically weeded from the register after a few months of inactivity.

If you are interested in full Membership of the Centre (ie. including the Theosophical Society), please speak to Alan: there is a separate application form to complete.

[Please note that Associate registration requires basic contact particulars. Alternatively, you can give just your email address and be registered on the more casual Visitors & Enquirers emailing list, in which case you will receive the Centre's monthly programme for a few months. If you wish to unsubscribe from the circulation list at any time, please send a blank email to unsubscribe@dhyanacentre.org].
