Dear visitors & enquirers,

Please find below the events programme for the coming month. The whole schedule can best be seen online in the Centre's activities calendar and there is also a complete listing at the bottom of this email.

New or noteworthy...

- Next introductory course at the TS has been postponed until Sunday 15th May
- No more in-person meditations at the TS planned for the time being
- Centre activity will continue online on Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays.

1. Meditation courses

Dhyana Yoga course 2/22 has been postponed for two weeks and all those booking have been notified. The course is now scheduled for Sundays 15th & 29th May, & 12th June. Open to all including returning students; more info including booking at www.dhyanacentre.org/calendar/#courses.

2. Meditation & OM Healing sessions at the TS

Classes in-person at the TS have ceased temporarily. I had hoped to offer some trial Saturday evening sessions but the tube strike every Saturday makes even this unworkable.

OM Healing remains suspended but will be re-considered if the present decline in Covid cases in London continues.

3. Online practice sessions via Zoom (Tuesday and Friday @ 7pm, Sundays @ 10am)

Online sessions are taking place every Tuesday and Friday evening and every Sunday morning (unless there is a course or other session at 50 Gloucester Place). There is an up to date schedule on the calendar webpage or the details can be seen on the Centre's activities calendar.

All these sessions are open to DC members, associates and current students, no booking is required, just use the link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/5264467923> (there is no passcode but the waiting room will apply).

Sessions normally last 1 hour or slightly longer. The Open Forum consists of a yogic reading (currently from "Conscious Immortality") with discussion/Q & A and one 20 minute meditation, while all other sessions are focused solely on silent meditation and consist of either two 20 minute periods of practice or one 45 minute meditation.

PLEASE NOTE the following...

- a) if you miss the start time for a Zoom session, it is perfectly OK to join later, you will not disturb anybody, but just be aware that you will be joining in the middle of a silent meditation so stay muted and settle in as quickly as you can.
- b) due to the fact that details of these sessions are published on the internet, I have had several attempted gate-crashers but they don't get into the actual meditation because I do not let them get further than the Zoom waiting room. If I don't know who the person seeking admittance is, I will not let them access the session. But there's a downside to this: it's up to you to ensure that your Zoom profile displays a name that I recognise when you sign on. If that is not possible for any reason, you need to email me and tell me in advance otherwise you too will get stuck in the waiting room...
- c) finally, can I emphasise that these sessions are all classes ie. teaching sessions not simply group meditations. As such, it is my normal didactic practice to select certain individuals afterwards to ask about their meditation and then use this interaction to bring out teaching points for the benefit of all those present. This is not an attempt to pry where it is not wanted: if you would rather not discuss anything, you should just say "Pass" and I will pass you by, in the same way that I do with in-person sessions at the TS. Alternatively, keep your video off and I will ignore you on the assumption that you just wish to listen but not participate.

Kind regards,

Alan Perry
